Accessibility Highlights

- ADA Parking is available on a first-come, first-serve basis on Volunteer Park Road in the Seattle Asian Art Museum parking lot. Please enter Volunteer Park Road off E Prospect Street (south park entrance).
- ADA-compliant portable restrooms are available on Volunteer Park Road, near its intersection with E Highland Drive, and in the Supernova Space Station Bar area. Additionally, there are restrooms located inside of the Seattle Asian Art Museum.
- ASL Interpretation is available at the south east corner of the Mothership Mainstage.
- Accessible priority seating is available in front of the stage, near the west lawn's alcohol garden.
- Accessible paths are indicated throughout the map. Accessibility mats will be available where pathways indicated across grass.
- Designated assistants are available at our Information Booth to support with food and beverage assistance.
- The neurodiversity nebula is a low sensory decompression space with activities and sensory supports (cohosted by The Arc of King County).
