ACCESSIBILITY GUIDE

Pride in the Park

Saturday, June 1st, 2024 | 12pm - 7pm

Accessibility Highlights

- ADA Parking is available on a first-come, first-serve basis on Volunteer Park Road in the Seattle Asian Art Museum parking lot. Please enter Volunteer Park Road off E Prospect Street (south park entrance).
- ADA-compliant portable restrooms are available near the intersection of Volunteer Park Road and E Highland Drive and near the Seattle Asian Art Museum parking lot on Volunteer Park Road. There are also restrooms located in the alcohol garden on the east lawn of Volunteer Park, near the dance stage. Additionally, there are restrooms located inside of the Seattle Asian Art Museum.
- ASL Interpretation is available at the south east corner of the Amphitheater Mainstage.
- Accessible priority seating is available in front of the stage, near the southeast corner (first-come, first-serve).
- Accessible paths are indicated throughout the map. Accessibility mats will be available where pathways indicated across grass.
- Designated assistants are available at our Information Booth to support with food and beverage assistance.
- The low-sensory zone is a decompression space with activities and sensory support (co-hosted by The Arc of King County).
